Topic: Jan. 15- God's Inspired Word

God enriched our lives by giving us His heart and mind in the Bible, His inspired Word. We can trust the Bible as the sacred and authoritative path to life and godliness, because we can trust the God who inspired it.

When Brethren Love The Lord "A Little" 4) Prayer and Bible study are engaged in "a little" — if "a little" at all.

When brethren love the Lord "a little":

1) Just "a little" rain, "a little" heat, "a little" cold, "a little" company, "a little" excuse, can keep them from attending church services.

2) "A little" money is given to the Lord; "a little" half-hearted service is rendered.

3) "A little" grief is manifested over sin and personal shortcomings.

5) There will be "a little" persecution and "a little" cross-bearing.

6) There's "a little" concern because of lost sinners in the world and backsliders in the church.

Brethren, let's think about the above "a littles" — "a lot."

Other News for Beech Grove

Lisa Keen had knee surgery last week. Marie Crowell is recuperating at home and seems to be gaining strength.

Thanks to Tim Waldron for teaching in the absence of Ken Wednesday. Ken and Judy had a good trip and safe return home.

Great news: Jeannie Rhoten came to the Beech Grove building this week to be baptized into Christ. The wife of Jimmy Rhoten, she was baptized by her husband's brother who preaches in Jackson County (Burrstown). The Rhotens live on Farrar Hill Road and we hope they will be choosing to worship here with us. Brother Rhoten has some health problems and we ask that you pray for both of them to be strong, both physically and spiritually.

Reminder: Our new schedule for reading the Bible this year gives us a reading each week from 7 sections of scripture classified as epistles, law, history, Psalms, poetry, prophecy, and gospels. Be sure to get a schedule so you can follow along even if you miss a bulletin.

Today is our monthly fellowship and meal together. We are blessed to have a comfortable place to meet and enjoy fellowship together.

A "Can Do" Attitude

by Jason Hart

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13).

Allow me to create what I call a "step study." A "step study" may seem a bit tedious but it can greatly help in the application of a passage.

"I" - Because of the first person pronoun "I," the reader automatically becomes a part of the verse.

"I Can" - Saying "I can" leaves out any "I think," "I might," "I could," or "I should."

"I Can Do" - When we say, "I can do," what we mean to suggest is that we can put our lives into action with confidence. It's not just a passing thought.

"I Can Do All Things" - Everything within righteous reason is possible with the right attitude.

"I Can Do All Things Through"

- There is a powerful source through which we can accomplish much. It is not beside of, over, or under - it is through.

"I Can Do All Things Through Christ" - Christ is the central force through whom all righteous things can be accomplished.

"I Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Strengthens" - It is Christ, who, as our Savior, Redeemer, Mediator, High Priest, and King, provides insurmountable strength to those who love Him.

"I Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Strengthens Me" - Last but not least, the reader is not only encouraged by the strength that Christ provides, but by the strength He provides on an individual
