Jim Waldron, a missionary we help support, is planning to report on his work and also preach today. Welcome brother Jim.

After preaching in the USA, brother Waldron spent ten years (beginning in 1967) living and working in Pakistan, Australia, and Hong Kong. In 1986 he began traveling abroad from six to eight months each year in order to set up and conduct schools for native workers in various countries to train them to reach their own with the gospel of Jesus and His kingdom. Waldron has been instrumental in setting up sixteen Preacher Training schools in India, Nepal and Ukraine. He strongly believes that faithful (2 Tim. 2:2) disciples should be trained in their own lands to reach their own people with the (Continued inside)

Beech Grove News / Prayer Requests

Leroy Muncy went home Tuesday but is still sick. Tim Waldron still has unresolved problems with his eyes.

Sympathy is expressed to the family of Morris Trail, Wanda's uncle, due to his death. Remember Dr. Walker's wife, Elizabeth, at Boulevard Terrace, and Laura Singleton at home. Remember all our older members who have chronic pain. Continue to remember Ernest Cartright, Jr., 710 Pine Knoll Park, Lot 25, Arkport, N.Y. 14807 with cards and letters. Kristen Toops sends greetings from Clarksville, and hopes to come back to visit here in February.

The earthquake in Haiti continues to command attention, and we hope you will give generously to enable the church here to send funds to those people and/or congregations that are successfully getting to the places that need help.
