Laura Singleton

Our deep sympathy to the family of Sister Laura Singleton whose funeral was at Sherwood Church of Christ on Friday. She had been unable to be with us in recent years due to her difficulty with breathing. Years ago, as a young mother, she tried to make sure her home was sanitary. One day she made the mistake of mixing ammonia and bleach, and the toxic fumes did such destruction to her breathing that she has lived with an oxygen tank for years.

More recently, while going to the doctor, she had an accident at the end of her road, with her car overturning in the creek. Her oxygen ran out and she valiantly tried to keep her head out of the frigid water. Finally someone came by and she was rescued, but from that time on, pneumonia and other problems caused a constant battle for life.

Laura had a large family, and some of them have serious health problems even to this day. Let us all do what we can to encourage them.

Lee and Iva Rose were steadfast friends who have visited regularly and shared the communion with her at her home on a weekly basis. Their example is worth following. God bless them as they continue to serve the Lord despite serious health problems of their own.

Beech Grove News and Prayer Requests

Sick list - members, relatives and friends: Continue to remember the Conner family in prayer with various serious health issues. The Waldron family is sharing the flu this week and were expecting to be out today. Charlene Brandon seems to be gaining strength, but still has occasional weakness.

Prayer list . . . Pray for

- Beechgrove, to hear the gospel.
- Christians who teach the gospel around the world.
- Mission work at home and abroad
- The effectiveness of our direct mailing of HtH/HtH.
- Those tempted by Satan to forsake the Lord, His church, and godly living.
- The lukewarm
- The sick and injured
- Widows and orphans
- Those who are bereaved.
- The unemployed and underemployed.
- Leaders of nations and local leaders.
- School teachers and students
- Garland Brown, Elizabeth Walker
- Military personnel: Andy Miller family in Japan. Adam Thomas in N.C.

- People suffering from disasters caused by nature and weather
 - Those who are having domestic problems and are tempted to give up.

Churches of Christ

The church of Christ is a non-denominational body of Christians. We have no earthly headquarters. Our leader is in Heaven at the right hand of God. We are not affiliated with any organization such as the National Council of Churches. Rather, each local congregation of the churches of Christ looks to God and His word for guidance. We believe the Bible to be the inspired word of God and that it furnishes us completely for every spiritual need. We stand for a return to New Testament faith and practice. And we are confident that by believing and doing what New Testament Christians did, we can be the same kind of Christians they were.

We know this is right before God. We see no need, therefore, for denominational names, creeds and organizations.

Jesus said that worship must be in spirit and in truth (Jn. 4:24). Worship among churches of Christ follows the Scriptural pattern.

When the Lord established the church, He organized it into local autonomous congregations, with each taking care of its own affairs. He made no provisions for a national or international headquarters. In matters of faith all are to be guided by the New Testament. In other decisions, each congregation was to govern itself.

The work of the church Jesus built was to preach the gospel, as well as edify its members and care for the needy. Churches of Christ do not exist as political tools, nor do they exist as recreation clubs. Their work is spiritual, doing what God intended the church to do.

Remember, Jesus built His church. It is found in the New Testament. We can be a part of it by letting the Bible be our only guide.

How to be Happy

Here are some attitudes and actions, revealed in scripture, which if applied in our hearts will result in the by-product we call “happiness.”

- “Serve the Lord with gladness. . .” (Ps 100:2)
- “Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.” (Ps. 29:2)
- “Pray without ceasing” (1 Thess. 5:17)
- “And be ye kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving one another.” (Eph. 4:32)
- “Bear one another’s burdens” (Gal. 6:1)
- Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.” (Gal. 6:10)
- “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.” (Phil. 4:6)
- “I have learned in whatever state I am to be content.” (Phil. 4:11)
- “. . . Walk in the light as He is in the light . . .” (1 Jn. 1:7)
- “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.” (Phil. 4:13)

True happiness comes when God’s will is being done in our lives.
