Jesus Warned That Deception Will Come

By Don Ruhl

Jesus said that false christs would come, and then said, "But take heed; see, I have told you all things beforehand" (Mark 13:23).

Therefore, when deception arrives, we should not be surprised. Satan is evil, and those who follow him, whether aware of following him or not, are also evil, and they will do things that we find hard to believe, that someone could do such things, but believe it. Jesus said it would happen.

Be wise in the Scriptures and you will never be led astray.

Beech Grove News and Prayer Requests

Ann Conner had surgery this week and is hoping it will help solve some of her health problems. She fell Sunday morning and is not expected to be at church. Donna Gordon had strep and ear infection last Sunday. Joan Dennis had flu last week. Charlene Brandon was out sick last Sunday. Marie Curl's cousin Angie Crouch is having complications with pregnancy and has been in Vanderbilt Hospital. Marie's uncle's brother-in-law Don Ward had an aneurism. He has been unconscious and without any brain activity. Melissa Dickerson and Jesse are just getting over the flu. Kristen's mom fell this week and broke a hip.

Our sympathy is expressed to the family of Garland Brown. His funeral was yesterday and burial was at Beech Grove Cemetery. He was raised here and is an uncle of Wanda, Donna, and the other "Trail girls".

Prayer list . . . Pray for

- Beechgrove, to hear the gospel.
- Christians who teach the gospel around the world.
- Mission work at home and abroad
- Our elderly members who have difficulty getting around, but continue to be good examples of faithfulness.

- The effectiveness of our direct mailing of HtH/HtH.
- Those tempted by Satan to forsake the Lord, His church, and godly living.
- The lukewarm
- The sick and injured
- Widows and orphans
- Those who are bereaved.
- The unemployed and underemployed.
- Leaders of nations and local leaders.
- School teachers and students
- Elizabeth Walker in Boulevard Terrace NH.
- Military personnel: Andy Miller family in Japan. Adam Thomas in N.C.
- People suffering from disasters caused by nature and weather. In particular, the people of Japan and that the nuclear threat from the atomic plant is controlled.
- Those who are having domestic problems and are tempted to give up.

The Drunk "Lifestyle"

by Stan Mitchell

"They struck me," you will say, "but I was not hurt; they beat me but I do not feel it! When shall I awake? I must have another drink!" (Proverbs 23:35, ESV).

Solomon wisely chooses to make gentle fun of the drunk. For some unaccountable reason, young people, wannabe "he-men," and some empty-headed young women associate getting drunk with being smooth and debonair.

Yes, and World Federation Wrestling is real, too!

So how do you puncture this perception? Solomon does it by imagining a drunk rolling with the punches, getting into bar room brawls, substituting booze for bravery, fumes for fearlessness. But as he's bounced around the room, marveling at the fact that he's not hurt, the reader senses that tomorrow he will know, the bruises and black eyes will remind him.

Then, most damaging of all is his addiction. Far from learning from his mistake, he wonders: "When can I wake up" so I can begin another round of drinking? When will he wake up, indeed.

Of course, addiction is not funny. The maimed bodies at the crash site, the beaten children when Dad returns home reeling and resentful, the money that should have gone to food and clothes burned up in an alcoholic haze.

But if one young person can see this "hero" for who he really is, then perhaps he can avoid the lifestyle. Because it's hardly "life," and it's certainly not any sort of "style."
