Topic June 19 - The Restoration Plea

Going back to the Bible is essential to true Christianity. The Word of God gives us God's will for our lives; and if we are to find the Lord's Way, we will have to go back to the Source in God's Word.

Beech Grove News and Prayer Requests

Brother Rose has been suffering severe pain which hinders his walking. Ken Thomas is having recurrent lower back pain which comes at unexpected times. He is undergoing treatments. We have not had the latest report on the tests that were done last week on brothers Conner and Mason.

Since the Wednesday Bible study has been coming from Romans and the Sunday quarterly study begins today in Romans, Ken will be covering the passages that are not covered in the quarterly and trying to tie all the studies together.

Barry Gilreath Died Monday

The man who envisioned Gospel Broadcasting Network as a 24/7 network of broadcasts of Bible messages, singing, and other inspirational programs has died.

Barry Gilreath was involved in the day-to-day operations up until his death at age 65. He was buried in Ringgold, GA Saturday.

Jim Dearman, GBN Program Director, wrote, “Only eternity will reveal the souls who will be saved because Barry Gilreath, Sr., acted upon his dream to help make the dream of God a reality. Life brings us many acquaintances, but God brings us friends like Barry Gilreath, Sr. I will continue to thank God for that gift.”

Jeffrey Archey, preacher with the East Side church in Cleveland, Tenn., recalls, “At an area preacher’s luncheon, Barry Gilreath, Sr. was seated next to me. During the luncheon, he leaned over and said, ‘Brother Jeff, what would you think of a 24/7 television network with nothing but gospel preaching?’ My reply was, ‘Brother Barry, that would be great.’”

The seed was being sown and, eventually, the outreach tool of the “Gospel Broadcasting Network” was a reality.

“Brother Barry knew the power of television,” said Archey. “When James Watkins retired from local preaching work in 1997, it was brother Barry who talked to brother Watkins about the program ‘Preaching the Gospel’ and we know the effect that program has had.”

“Brother Barry envisioned the current GBN studios. He wanted to see crowds come in and fill the studio area for various ‘live’ broadcasts. When he sold the idea of GBN, he had a passion for souls and he knew the right people to work with him to make that dream come true,” Archey said. “I considered him a good brother in the Lord, a friend, an encourager and a good advisor in my GBN work. He always had a smile and never complained of his ailments—it was always, ‘I’m doing pretty good.’”
