The Great Commandment

Mark 12. 28-34

And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God.

Snapshot of Chile Mission

Much good is done despite hindrances. Delayed flight from Nashville due to weather. Replacement flight gets to Atlanta too late to connect to Santiago. Unexpected hotel stay and 24 hour delay. Plane leaves Atlanta, and lands in Orlando for repairs. 9+ hour flight. Remainder of workers are waiting in Santiago. Worship. 7 hour bus ride to Lota. Chilly weather, unheated rooms, cold showers, medical supplies are late. Containers of clothes and building materials are very late . . . Many people show up. Medicines are given, splints are made, nasty wounds are cleaned, earwax is removed, etc. Clothes are distributed to hundreds of families. Houses are put together. People praise God and express their thanks. Bible studies are conducted through translators and Spanish speaking evangelists. Cold water baptisms in a portable pool. 18 souls are added to the church in Lota, formerly 30 members.
