Topic June 26 - For All Time

Though our contemporary culture is all around us, there are some vital things in Christ and the Bible that transcend time. Christianity is a faith for all times in all places and for all people. That's what makes it so necessary to be a Christian.

Father's Day - June 18, 2011

Steve Higginbotham

I'm sure you heard the one about the little boys who were bragging on their dads. One little boy said, "My dad's an artist. He can work two hours with a piece of canvas and people will pay him $1,000.00. Another boy said, "Big deal. My dad's a doctor and he can work for an hour in surgery and make $5,000.00. Finally the third boy spoke up and said, "that's nothing. My dad's a preacher and he can work for 30 minutes and it takes 8 men to pick up the baskets full of money when he gets done!"

Whatever you dad does or did for a living, I hope it was something you can be proud of. Our fathers sacrificed far more than we will ever know so that our lives could be blessed. If you still have your father, be sure and let him know how much he is loved and appreciated.

Prayer list . . . Pray for

- Beechgrove, to hear the gospel.
 - Christians who teach the gospel around the world.
 - Mission work at home and abroad
 - Our elderly members who have difficulty getting around, but continue to be good examples of faithfulness.
 - The effectiveness of our direct mailing of HtH/HtH.
 - Those tempted by Satan to forsake the Lord, His church, and godly living.
 - The lukewarm
 - The sick and injured
 - Widows and orphans
 - Those who are bereaved.
 - The unemployed, underemployed.
 - Leaders of nations, local leaders.
 - School teachers and students
 - Elizabeth Walker, Blvd. Terrace
 - Military personnel: Andy Miller family, and Adam Thomas in California
 - Civilians in war zones.
 - People suffering from disasters caused by nature and weather. In particular, the people who have suffered losses to tornados and floods in recent days. So many have died, and others are missing.
 - Those who are having domestic problems and are tempted to give up.
 - Pray for those who know the truth, that they would have as much zeal for truth as those who believe and propagate false teachings!

The Journey Home

On April 6, 2008, pet owner Doug Dashiell was driving through Nevada with his three dogs on a weekend trip. He let his Siberian husky, Moon, out of his truck for a moment near Railroad Valley. Moon broke free from her chain and was last seen running in a northwesterly direction. After searching for Moon and contacting the local authorities, Dashiell returned home to Ely, Nevada, a distance of 77 miles.

After seven days, a resident of Ely found Moon searching the streets for her master. With the help of the veterinarian's tags on her collar, the Samaritan was able to reunite her with Dashiell. During her week astray, Moon had negotiated miles of desert, crossed the White River, and traversed the Ward Mountain range.

Moon returned entirely unscathed, except for a strong odor of skunk. Dashiell reported that he had all but given up hope for her safe return.

Observe some lessons we can learn from Moon's experiences...

- There is within each of us a longing for home. We are never "at home" until we are united with our Creator, the Heavenly Father. Augustine once said, "God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you."

- In the course of our journeys, each of us will "break off his or her chain" and become lost in the wilderness. "All we like sheep have gone astray; We have turned, every one, to his own way" (Isaiah 53:6). This is what the Bible calls SIN, and every one of us is guilty (Romans 3:23).

- Our journeys cause us to "stink" of sin. But, we can wash away the stench in the baptismal pool. Ananias instructed Saul to "Arise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Acts 22:16).

- We are all wandering across treacherous terrains (cf. John 16:33), but Jesus has shown us the way to a Heavenly home. He said, "I AM the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14: 6). In order to provide the way home, Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins (Ephesians 1:7).

- We all belong to the same Master. "The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness, The world and those who dwell therein" (Psalm 24:1). The Master wants us to come home. "[God our Savior] desires ALL men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:4).

We can all get home to the Master, free of sin, by: putting our faith and trust in Him (Acts 16:30-31), turning from sin in repentance (Acts 17:30-31), confessing Him before men (Romans 10:9-10), and being baptized (immersed) in His name for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38).

Are you lost in the wilderness and searching for home? Have you encountered "skunks" and smell of sin?

Jesus is The Way home! Won't YOU follow Him today?
