Gospel Meeting . . . Our meeting with brother Williams featured lessons to make us all think and reflect on the Bible's application to our own lives. We thank Charles Williams for his consistently sound and clear preaching. We commend the congregation for consistent attendance. Except for those who were sick and out of town we had almost perfect attendance by our membership. We are thankful for visitors from several nearby congregations, in particular Antioch, Noah, and Main Street (who brought a busload.

A lot of work went into preparing for the meeting. Thanks to Junior Conner for spray-washing the building outside, and Maria Curl for extra effort on inside clean-up. Thanks to Debbie and T J Waldron for coming to help Ken fix the letter-strip on our main sign, and to Tim Waldron for helping get the flashing sign going as well as helping get the pool (cont.)

Thanks to everyone who let people know about the meeting and urged them to come.

Hopefully the seeds of truth that were planted will grow up and bear fruit in our lives. Let us continue to invite people to study with us and/or to visit our worship.

Religion? Or Way of Life?

Much controversy erupted in Rutherford County when it was announced that area Muslims had plans to build a huge complex including a mosque on Bradyville Pike. The opposition that erupted made the Muslims look like martyrs, and publicized their cause even to the extent of national publicity. Demonstrations and counter-demonstrations have been highly emotional and fervent.

It was said by opponents that their opposition was not an attack on freedom of religion as guaranteed in the constitution, but a protest of procedure and proper notification about zoning hearings. Yet it is clear that many opponents were also concerned that the Muslims would put into practice what many have already done, and attack those who are non-Muslims.

There is no doubt that a serious percentage of Muslims have that as their goal. But articles in the DNJ have portrayed the local Muslims as peaceful people who merely want to enjoy constitutional religious freedom of religion.

Be that as it may, it is even more disturbing to see Islam portrayed as a "way of life", not just a way of religion. But Christianity is supposedly not so serious a threat because religion is just a part of a much bigger LIFE. WHAT???

The popular view is that Christianity is not a shaping and controlling force in the lives of its practitioners. But it is supposed to be!

(Mat 10:34-39) Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. 36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household. 37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. 39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

(Gal 2:20) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
