THANKS!

(Psa 105:1-2) O give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people. {2} Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

(Psa 106:1-2) Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. {2} Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can show forth all his praise?

(Col 3:15) And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

(Eph 5:20) Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

(1 Cor 15:57) But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

(2 Cor 2:14) Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

(Col 1:3) We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

(Col 1:12) Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

(Col 3:17) And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

(1 Th 5:18) In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

Do Everything With Thanksgiving

Gratitude is one of chief virtues and ingratitude is one of the most serious deficiencies. Could ingratitude ever be called a sin? Our present lesson draws upon some of Paul's thoughts in his letter to Colossae.

Paul knew how to be grateful for faithful Christians in a church he had not established or worked with (Col. 1:1-11). Though he preferred to serve where other Christians had not gone, he appreciated and was concerned for the church everywhere (Rom. 15:20, 2 Cor. 11:28, Phil. 1:18). He was grateful for the Christians in Colossae because of their faith, their love for all the saints, their hope of heaven, and the fruit the gospel was bearing in their lives. He prayed that they would be filled with the knowledge of God's word, walk worthily of the Lord in everything, be fruitful in every good work, grow and be strengthened by God, be patient and joyful, and give thanks to God the Father all things.

The Colossians shared with all Christians everywhere (1:12-14 and 2:7). The Father makes all acceptable and suitable to share the inheritance of the saints in light. He has changed our relationship with Himself and with the world we live in. In His Christ we have redemption and forgiveness of sins. We can walk in and with Christ in the way taught by His apostles, rooted and grounded and complete in Him – buried baptism and raised up to a new life in Him (2:13-14).

Christians are admonished to be thankful in everything (3:9-17, 4:2), because of the changes in themselves as redeemed persons. Thanksgiving should be evident in the interaction of members of His body, the church. With so much to be thankful for, it is disturbing that many do not display proper gratitude. Christians in our country have more to be thankful for than most in the world, not only in the material and social things, but especially in the spiritual. But we spend a lot of time in the complaint department – there seems to be no end to our ingratitude. We have so much to be thankful for – we should spend more time counting our blessings and thanking our God.

“Thanks Be to God for His Unspeakable Gift”

As we prepare this week to celebrate one of my favorite national holidays [Thanksgiving], at the top of our list should be the thoughts expressed so perfectly by the apostle Paul in 2 Corinthians 9:15: “Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.”

What unspeakable gift was the apostle referring? Bible students have often been divided over what gift he is describing in this verse especially in view of his discussion in this chapter of how happy he was with the liberal giving of the Corinthians. But the view which appears most reasonable is that which understands THE gift of God to be the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. The word “unspeakable” is hardly the word that Paul would have chosen for any lesser gift than the Savior. No doubt Jesus inspires a love for man in those who believe and trust in Him. In Paul's heart and mind, he cannot help but reflect upon the Supreme sacrifice that God sent His Son, and His Son was willing to die for us that we may have the hope of eternal life (John 20:30-31).

How THANKFUL we need to be for that gift!! --- by Wayne Hatcher
